Congratulations from the Chancellor & Commencement Speaker

RONNIE D. GREEN, Ph.D.

Congratulations, Class of May 2023. Today is a pivotal day in your life as you mark the completion of your degree, and we celebrate this massive achievement with you.

Commencement is a truly special time. I hope you take it all in and enjoy the experience and all that it means to you and your family. As the first in my family to earn a college degree, I cherished my commencement ceremonies. I hope your memories of this day stay with you throughout your life.

Today we continue our time-honored tradition of presenting your actual diploma on stage. Making this happen calls for our faculty and staff to meticulously work in the face of time constraints, and we do it to recognize the hard work and resilience of our students, who have stretched their strengths and emerged as accomplished scholars. That is how we do big things – and that is what we mean by “In Our Grit, Our Glory.” I could not be prouder of what you and all our graduating students have accomplished. You have earned all the glory that comes with it!

I have often said during my time as chancellor that my favorite days of the year are the start of the new academic year in August as we welcome students to campus and the days such as today when we hold our commencement ceremonies. Today will be my last commencement as chancellor, and your class will always hold a special place in my heart. We are graduating together, in a sense – on to what comes next. Whatever that may be for you, we believe in you and all you can do with your Nebraska degree. Wherever you go, you will always be a Husker!

Ronnie D. Green
Chancellor, University of Nebraska–Lincoln

Ronnie D. Green became the University of Nebraska–Lincoln’s 20th chancellor on May 8, 2016. Green received bachelors and masters degrees in animal science from Virginia Tech and Colorado State University, respectively. His doctoral program was completed jointly at the University of Nebraska and the USDA-ARS U.S. Meat Animal Research Center in animal breeding and genetics in 1988. Chancellor Green is married to UNL alumna Jane Green and they are the proud parents of four children, all graduates of the University of Nebraska–Lincoln.

Nebraska Builder Award

JOANN MARTIN, M.S.

In recognition of her outstanding service, vision and civic leadership bringing educational resources together for the advancement of Nebraska citizens and students; in honor of her transformational ability to collaborate with public and private entities to make the University of Nebraska and the State of Nebraska a better place to live and learn; in gratitude for her loyalty and service to her alma mater, including as a member of the Nebraska Innovation Campus Development Corporation founding board, the College of Business Dean's Advisory Board, and as trustee, board member and chair of the University of Nebraska Foundation, the University of Nebraska posthumously confers upon JoAnn M. Martin, the 2023 Nebraska Builder Award.

JoAnn Martin was a distinguished alumna of the University of Nebraska—Lincoln, a highly accomplished business executive and former CEO of Ameritas. JoAnn grew up on a farm near Plainview, Nebraska, and attended the University of Nebraska—Lincoln, graduating with a bachelor of science degree in business administration with high distinction in 1975. She was a charter member and the first president of the Beta Alpha Psi honorary society.

She began her professional career at the Touche Ross & Company accounting firm in 1976 and later earned a master of science in business administration from Colorado State University.

Following several roles in public accounting, she began her career at Ameritas in 1984, then known as Bankers Life Nebraska, serving in various key leadership roles before being elected CEO in 2009. She served as CEO until her retirement in January 2020. Under her leadership, Ameritas experienced significant growth in its assets and its customer base, and Martin was recognized for her innovative leadership, strategic vision, and commitment to excellence.

In addition to her roles at Ameritas, she served as a board member and chairwoman in numerous other business and community roles. She was chairwoman of the University of Nebraska Foundation Board of Directors, member of the board of directors for the Omaha Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City, chairwoman of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, served on the Lincoln Vision and Prosper Lincoln steering committees, and was vice chair for the Lincoln Community Foundation. She also volunteered for many school and community causes and was a member of St. Mark's United Methodist Church.

Some of the awards bestowed on JoAnn for her corporate and community leadership included her 2015 induction into the Nebraska Business Hall of Fame, 2018 Woman of the Year honor at the Lincoln Journal Star's Inspire Awards, the Burnham Yates Citizenship Award from the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, and Nebraskan of the Year by Lincoln Rotary Club #14. In 2004 she was inducted into the School of Accountancy Hall of Fame at the University of Nebraska—Lincoln. The University of Nebraska Foundation honored JoAnn as its 2021 recipient of the Perry W. Branch Award for Distinguished Volunteer Service. She was recognized as the initial recipient of the JoAnn Martin Civic Leadership Award.

She is survived by husband Derrel Martin, their two daughters, Jennifer and Kimberly, and three grandchildren.

Honorary Degree Recipient

Doctor of Law

THE HONORABLE BOB KERREY

In recognition of his outstanding career as a public servant in the United States Senate; in honor of his courageous military service as a Navy Seal officer and as a champion for our nation's men and women in uniform; in acknowledgement of his leadership as the 35th Governor for the State of Nebraska; for his leadership in higher education; in gratitude for his loyalty and service to his alma mater; and his commitment to doing good throughout his life; the University of Nebraska confers upon Bob Kerrey the honorary degree Doctor of Law.

Bob Kerrey is managing director at Allen & Company. He is also chair emeritus of the Minerva Institute for Research and Scholarship, supporting The Minerva Project, an exceptional liberal arts and sciences education.

From 2001 to 2011 Mr. Kerrey was president of The New School, a university founded on democratic ideals and daring educational practices. On his watch, The New School experienced unprecedented growth in enrollment, faculty, scholarships, capital projects, research, and international engagement.

From 1989 to 2001 Mr. Kerrey represented Nebraska in the U.S. Senate, where he promoted equity for rural communities, led in farm and environmental legislation, strengthened taxpayers' rights, led in restructuring our intelligence agencies, and partnered with local leaders to build projects of lasting value to Nebraskans.

His public service since leaving the Senate includes: the 9/11 Commission, advisory board of the Iraq and Afghanistan Veterans Association, co-chair of the Concord Coalition, and the Natural Resources Defense Council.

Prior to his Senate service, Mr. Kerrey served one term as Nebraska's Governor. Before entering politics, he was a businessman who helped build a chain of restaurants and health clubs employing over 1000 people.

Mr. Kerrey served as a U.S. Navy SEAL during the Vietnam War. For his service, he received the Medal of Honor. While in Vietnam, he was wounded, permanently disabled, and received from this injury a great gift: sympathy for those who are suffering and an appreciation for the capacity of government to save your life.

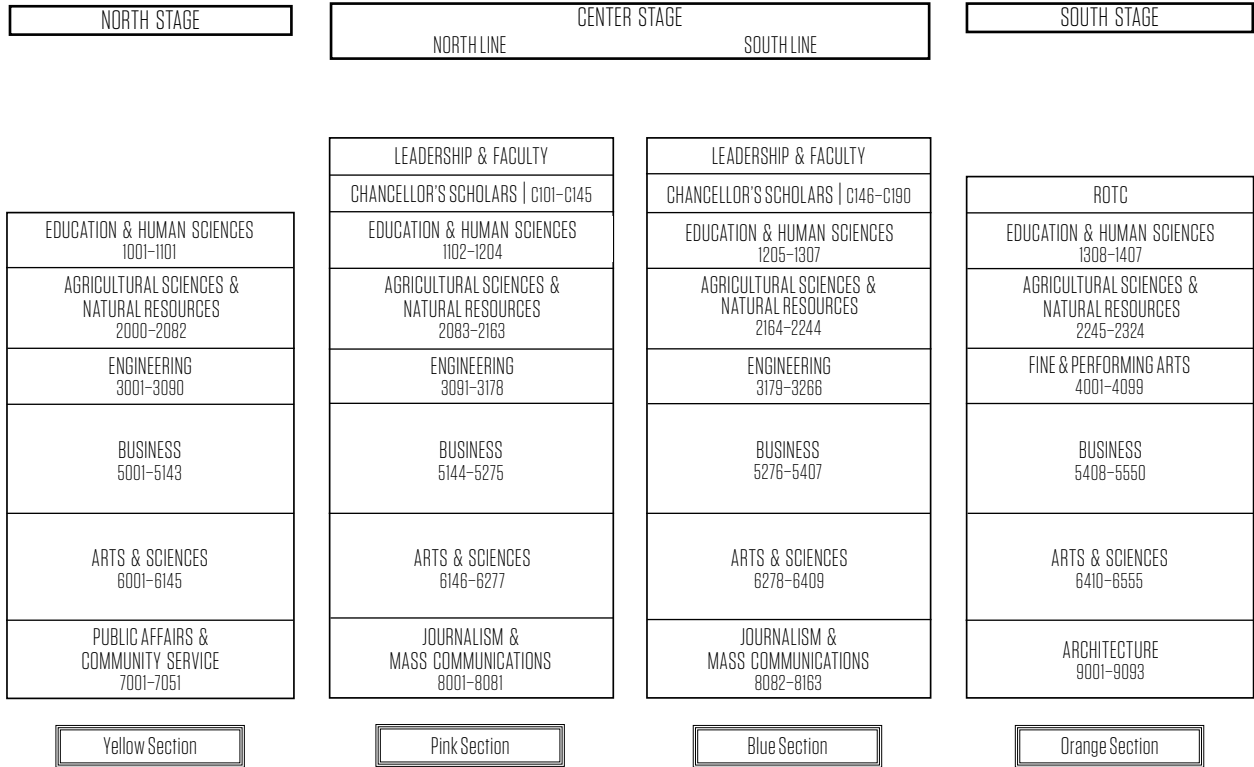

Mr. Kerrey earned a B.S. degree in pharmacy from the University of Nebraska.

Mr. Kerrey is married to Sarah Paley and lives in New York. They have a 21-year-old son, Henry, and Mr. Kerrey has two children from his previous marriage, Ben and Lindsey Kerrey, and four grandchildren.

ROTC Oath

*“I [state your full name],
having been appointed a (Second Lieutenant or Ensign) in the United States Navy, Marines, Army, Air Force, or Space Force do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office upon which I am about to enter. So help me God (optional).”*

Academic Attire

The caps and gowns worn during formal academic occasions in American colleges today are the direct descendants of the everyday costumes worn in the universities of Medieval England. Because of the tremendous growth of American colleges and the confusion which would result if each were to adopt a distinctive costume, the Intercollegiate Bureau of Academic Costume was organized. The Bureau has established a uniform code which over 700 institutions have adopted.

There are three types of gowns and three types of hoods for bachelors, masters, and doctors, respectively. The bachelors gown has a long pointed sleeve; the masters gown has a long closed sleeve, square at the end with an arc of a circle just above the bottom. The sleeve extends well below the knee, the arm coming through a slit near the elbow. The doctors gown has a voluminous bell-shaped sleeve with three velvet bars. The colors of the bars are usually the colors of the faculty that granted the degree, but may be black.

The hood is the most important and distinctive feature of the code. The hoods for all degrees are lined with silk in the official academic color or colors of the institution conferring the degree and have an edging or trim of velvet. The color of the velvet edging indicates the course or faculty to which the degree pertains. The lining is exposed when the hood is worn. For example, a doctor of philosophy of the University of Nebraska will wear a hood whose lining is scarlet above the cream-white indicating Nebraska, trimmed with blue velvet for philosophy. The bachelors hood is rather short with narrow velvet edging. It is not worn by candidates for the bachelors degree but only by those upon whom this degree has been previously conferred. The masters hood is considerably longer, has a wider velvet edging, and exposes more of the lining. The doctors hood has wide panels at the side and is easily recognized since, of the three types of hoods, it has the widest velvet edging, greatest length, and fullest exposure of the lining.

The black mortar board cap with tassel is worn with each type of gown. Those holding a doctors degree are privileged to wear a gold tassel. Masters and bachelors wear tassels that are either black or the color appropriate to the course in which they are being graduated.

The Board of Regents, the President, and the Chancellor wear robes with velvet front panels and sleeve bars denoting their office. The Commencement Marshals wear scarlet robes with black velvet front panels and sleeve bars.

Hood colors observed at this commencement, which symbolize various areas of study, are as follows:

Tassel Colors

Undergraduate – black
Masters – same color as hood
Doctorate – gold

DEGREES WITH DISTINCTION

Selection for degrees with distinction, high distinction, and highest distinction is made by the college awarding the degree. Each college establishes its requirement for this honor. Students graduating with honors are presented a keepsake medallion. A medallion with a red ribbon denotes graduation with distinction, one with a white ribbon denotes high distinction, and one with a combination red and white ribbon denotes highest distinction.

Chancellor's Scholars have earned As on all of their graded work at the University of Nebraska–Lincoln and all other postsecondary institutions. They wear a Chancellor's Scholar pin on their ribbon.

Graduates of the University Honors Program have fulfilled specific requirements. Honors Program graduates wear a red and white epaulette in recognition of their achievement.
